RE: Statement of Fact Relative to Entities Formed Without Permission

Dear Mr. Yarbrough:

This Firm represents Agostinho Alfonso Macedo Moncaya and Miriam de La Concepcion Rodriguez Macedo. The following three entities were formed without their knowledge or consent and are therefore false and fraudulent:

1. Agostinho Macedo & Miriam De La C R P.A. (document number P14000004252);
2. Agostinho Macedo & Miriam De La C R, P.L.L.C. (document number L14000052095); and
3. Agostinho Macedo & Miriam De La C R (fictitious name filing, document number G1400006295).

Neither Agostinho Alfonso Macedo Moncaya nor Miriam de La Concepcion Rodriguez Macedo are affiliated with any of the foregoing entities and their names and addresses were used without their knowledge or consent. The foregoing three entities were fraudulently formed using the names and information of Agostinho Alfonso Macedo Moncaya and Miriam de La Concepcion Rodriguez Macedo.

I recently spoke with an attorney at the Florida Department of State and was initially instructed to record a Statement of Fact which set forth the basis for the false filings and which would put the public on notice of the fraudulent filings. Now that I am in receipt of the original signed Statement of Facts (copies of which are enclosed), I called the Division of Corporations about filing same with the Florida Secretary of State. I was thereafter instructed to send you copies of each Statement of Fact as well as a summary of the issues relating to the entities listed above, and that you would contact me to discuss how best to proceed. This is an important and time sensitive issue. Please contact me immediately to discuss the best way to proceed with the Statement of Facts and otherwise. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Shutts & Bowen LLP

Michelle G. Hendler
